AGREEMENT FOR REORGANIZATION OF THE NATIONAL RECONNAISSANCE PROGRAM

A. The National Reconnaissance Program

1. The NRP is a single program, national in character, to be developed and maintained through a cooperative endeavor on the part of all agencies of the Government concerned. The potentialities of U.S. technology must be aggressively and imaginatively exploited to develop systems for the collection of intelligence which are fully responsive to national intelligence needs and objectives.

2. The National Reconnaissance Program shall be responsive directly and solely to the intelligence collection requirements and priorities established by the United States Intelligence Board. Scheduling and targeting of both satellite and manned aircraft missions over denied areas shall continue to be the responsibility of USIB, subject to the operational approval of the 303 Committee.

B. National Reconnaissance Program Executive Committee

3. An NRP Executive Committee, consisting of the Deputy Secretary of Defense and the Director of Central Intelligence, is hereby established to formulate, guide and regulate the NRP. On the invitation of the Deputy Secretary of Defense or the Director of Central Intelligence, the Special Assistant to the President for Science and Technology shall sit on this committee for the purpose of participating in decisions relating to research and development. The NRP Executive Committee shall:

a. Establish an appropriate level of effort for the NRP in response to reconnaissance requirements provided by USIB and in the light of technical capabilities and fiscal limitations.

b. Approve or modify the consolidated National Reconnaissance Program and its budget.

c. Approve the allocation of responsibility and the corresponding funds for research and preliminary design studies for new systems.

d. Allocate development responsibilities and the corresponding funds for specific reconnaissance programs to CIA, the military services, [redacted] in such a way as to take maximum advantage of their facilities, competence and experience. It will also establish guidelines for collaboration between departments and for mutual support where appropriate.

e. Assign operational responsibility for various types of manned overflight missions to CIA or DoD subject to the concurrence of the 303 Committee.

f. Periodically review the essential features of the major program elements of the NRP.

4. The Executive Committee shall meet on the call of either the Deputy Secretary of Defense or the Director of Central Intelligence and at least every two weeks. All meetings will be attended by the DNRO and such staff advisors as the Deputy Secretary of Defense or the Director of Central Intelligence consider desirable.

C. National Reconnaissance Office

5. To implement the NRP, the Secretary of Defense will establish the NRO as a separate operating agency of the DoD.

6. The Director of the NRO shall be appointed by the Secretary of Defense and be responsive solely to the NRP Executive Committee. The Director NRO shall:

- a. Be kept fully and completely informed of all programs and activities undertaken as part of the NRP.
- b. Subject to review by the Executive Committee, have authority to approve, modify, redirect or terminate all research and development programs in the NRP.
- c. Prepare a coordinated, comprehensive budget for all aspects of the National Reconnaissance Program.
- d. Establish a fiscal control and accounting procedure to ensure that all funds expended in support of the National Reconnaissance Program are fully accounted for and appropriately utilized by the agencies concerned. In particular, the budget shall show separately those funds to be applied to research and exploratory design, systems development, procurement, and operational activities. It shall show the portion of the funds that are assigned to the Central Intelligence Agency. Funds expended or obligated under the authority of the Director of Central Intelligence under Public Law 110 shall be administered and accounted for by CIA.

e. Schedule the use of the satellite launching, tracking and recovery facilities.

f. Sit with the USIB for the matters affecting the NRP.

7. The Deputy Director NRO shall be appointed by the DCI and shall be in the chain of command directly under the Director NRO and shall at all times be kept fully and currently informed as to all activities of the National Reconnaissance Program. The Deputy Director shall act for and exercise the powers of the Director, NRO during his absence or disability.

8. The NRO shall be jointly staffed in a balanced way by personnel from the CIA, three military departments and other Government agencies. All NRO personnel will serve solely under the direction and supervision of the DNRO. The NRO staff shall:
